Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Jesus sees the need for labourers in the harvest. His choice of the Twelve is for the purpose of going out to seek the lost sheep, to cure and to heal. It is a total vocation for them, a dedication freely given.

Clonlara Heritage To celebrate Heritage Week (15th to 22nd Aug) Clonlara Heritage group want to have an exhibition on the customs and practices relating to St Senan's Holy Well in Doonass and events around Pattern Day (15th Aug) in the past. They would appreciate stories or photos of the Holy Well or Pattern Day. Any photos or materials will be scanned and returned to the owners. Please contact Betty (Hogg) Noonan on 089 2575725 or clonlaraheritage@gmail.com if you can help.

National Synodal Pathway Update Preparations are continuing for the National Synodal Assembly, which will take place in October. Since 2021, the Irish Synodal Pathway has involved people across Ireland listening, praying and sharing hope for the Church today, and tomorrow. You are invited to be part of this journey.

"We want to be a synodal Church, a Church that moves forward, a Church that always seeks peace, that always seeks charity, that always seeks to be close above all to those who are suffering" Pope Leo

We are all members of the Synodal Church.

Graveyard Masses A special word of thanks to the Graveyard Committees and to our faith community who made our Annual Graveyard Masses such beautiful gatherings.

God is watching over us

Nowadays, thanks to the security camera, we are often being watched, watched by a cold, dispassionate eye, intent only on catching us in wrong-doing. The feeling that someone is watching us is not a pleasant feeling. But the feeling that someone is watching over us is a lovely feeling. God is not watching us, God is watching over us. The conviction that God is watching over us gives us comfort in times of sadness, strength in times of weakness, and hope in times of despair.

The Pope's Intention for June For the values of sports – Let us pray that sports be an instrument of peace, encounter, and dialogue among cultures and nations, and that they promote values such as respect, solidarity, and personal growth.
