Thirty –Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings today emphasise fidelity and dedication to duty and work. It is more blessed to give: talents and gifts are given for the service of the community. The Christian is to be fully dedicated to working in service of others while watching and waiting for the life to come. There is always so much good to be done for others and so little time in which to do it.!

November Masses for Holy Souls

People like to have their departed families and friends remembered at the November masses in the parish. We invite you to put the names of your deceased members in the November Envelopes available in both Churches and at the parish office. Many thanks to all who have handed in envelopes.

Diocesan Day of Remembrance 20th November

On Friday 20th of November Killaloe Diocese will celebrate a day of remembrance for all who have died this past year and especially remembering people in our country who have died because of COVID 19. This is an ecumenical day which will be celebrated by the Christian Churches in our Diocese. A short radio message and blessing from Bishop Fintan and Bishop Kenneth Kearon (Church of Ireland) will mark the beginning of the day's prayer. This will also be available on diocesan and parish websites, on Facebook and other social media. A Diocese-wide moment of silence and individual prayer at 12 noon to remember the dead and bereaved. The angelus bell will be a reminder of this moment. People are invited to light candles and place them in the window in the evening as an act of remembrance.

Prayer on Visiting a Graveyard

May perpetual light shine upon the faces of all who rest here.
May the lives they lived unfold further in spirit.
May all their past travail find ease in the kindness of clay.
May the remembering earth mind every memory they brought.
May the rains from the heavens fall gently upon them
May the wildflowers and grasses whisper their wishes into light.
May we reverence the village of presence in the stillness of this silent field
