Third Sunday of Easter

The signs that Jesus gives are to be understood by faith. So we see Peter preaching conversion as he has been told to do so. Conversion is possible because Christ stands as our advocate before the Father.

Online Course- Accredited by St. Patrick's College, Maynooth

Level 7 Diploma in Spirituality – Applied Youth Ministry and Facilitation.

The course runs from September to April. Delivered online, students view lecturers and live e-tutorial sessions, access readings, ask questions, engage in discussions and complete assignments online. The course is designed with flexibility in mind, enabling the student to balance study with work and family commitments.

The practical element will comprise the on-line planning and delivery of four youth retreats/parish reflective youth experiences. The skills are transferable to other situations. Training for this is included in the course. Anyone interested in the spiritual and human development of young people, including parents, teachers, and school chaplains and youth workers in parish ministry. Cost €1500 (Payable in two instalments). Limited number of grants available towards cost if enquiries made before end of April. Initial deposit €100 (only refundable if not accepted onto the course) For further information please contact Kathleen 086 8608966. Also see www.shekinah.ie.

Men's Shed- Castleconnell

ACM Community Development Society (ACM) is planning to set up a Men's Shed in the garden of the refurbished Shannon House on Main Street, Castleconnell. If you are interested in joining it and would like to be kept informed we would like to know your name and contact details. We need about 10 to make a start so that we can join the Irish Men's Shed Association. In addition, it would be great if you would suggest three activities for the Shed that you would like to do there. This information will be held in strict confidence. We will use it to keep you informed about its progress and its initial, potential range of activities. Please send your information by text to Eamonn on 085 779 1272, otherwise phone me by Friday 23rd April. Looking forward to hearing from you. We will hold an initial meeting (by Zoom) as soon as possible after that.
