World Mission Sunday - October 22nd

In Ireland, Missio Ireland is responsible for coordinating World Mission Sunday. We are part of a global network serving the Church in over 120 countries. Right now, missionaries desperately need your help. In many poorer parishes in Africa, Asia, and Latin America missionaries are serving on the front line. They already do so much, walking hand-in-hand with marginalised communities, long before and after any emergency. You can show missionaries you care by supporting Mission Sunday Collection this weekend.

We welcome Fr. Iggy McCormack to our Parish this weekend. Fr Iggy will speak at all Masses in Castleconnell and Ahane Churches as part of the promotion for Vocations to the Killaloe Diocesan Priesthood.

200 Years of Education in Ahane - A Bicentennial Celebration 1823-2023

2023 marks 200 years of primary education in Ahane. Ahane National School and interested parents are marking this bicentennial year by celebrating a week of activities between 23rd and 27th October 2023. We are appealing to former pupils, parents, friends and members of the community to take a look for any past school photographs you may have. Additionally, the school would warmly appreciate any contributions relating to education in the original Thornfields school building. On Thurs, 26th October 2023 a community celebration of 200 years of education in Ahane featuring the images will be held in the School Hall at 7pm.

Prayer for the Synod

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in your name. With you alone to guide us, make yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful, do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in you our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of you, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen
