Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time The Pharisee came before God trusting in his own virtue, which was genuine enough. The tax collector knew that he was a sinner and threw himself on God's mercy. The Pharisee sang his own praises, the tax collector sang the mercies of the Lord.

We Remember Them

In the rising of the sun and its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

In the opening of the buds and the warmth of summer we remember them..

In the rustling of leaves and the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us,

As we remember them
