Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time Christians are called to patience and endurance in all of life's circumstances. We have no reason to expect that things will get better and better, or that the building up of the kingdom of God will proceed without opposition. All we are assured of is that God will work his purposes out and that good with triumph.

Reflection

Our Loved Ones leave behind a light that will never dim or fade.
 It's kept bright by the love we feel and the memories we made.
 It can warm us like a candle glow, and help bring comfort too, and no matter where you go, you'll find it's always close to you.
 In the darker times remember in our hearts their light is strong.
 So every time we think of them, their memory shines on.
